

This is the legend of Siegfried the dragon slayer.

Siegfried was brought up by a weapon smith and developed from a chubby baby into a strong young man, who was full of ambition. One day he heard of a fierce dragon and set forth to kill it. Success! After having killed the dragon, he bathed in his blood and became invulnerable. He also took the gold, which the dragon had robbed.

Celina Hoffmann

